Matthews-Cannon.
A. O. Cannon, of Lynnvill, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of his daughter, Ella Blanche, to Norton Hopkins Matthews, the wedding to be solemnized at the home on the evening of January 7, at 4:30 o'clock.

Holland-Clawson.
The following telegram was received by F. Clawson, of Ashwood, from his daughter, Miss Louise:

"John M. Holland and I were married today by rector St. Augustine Episcopal church.

"LOUISE CLAWSON HOLLAND."
Mr. and Mrs. Holland are now in Toronto, Canada, their future home. Mr. Holland being a member of the firm of Holland & Holland, of that city. The marriage was a surprise to the members of the family. While it was known that there was a friendship existing among the young people, it was not known that they contemplated marriage. Mrs. Holland is well known in Columbia and Maury county where she has a host of friends. Mr. Holland belongs to that element of going and doing Torontoans who accomplish things in a business way, and has high family connections there.

Wedding Anniversary.

There were a large number of persons from Maury county in attendance on the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Cox near Franklin Tuesday. Mrs. Cox was Miss Bessie Gordon, of Williamsport, before her marriage and is highly connected in the county. Those in the receiving line were those who participated in the wedding, and among those who went from here were Mrs. H. S. Frierson, Miss Camille Gordon, Miss Susie Lipscomb, Mrs. Bruce Cochran, Mrs. E. P. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Jones, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brown, Mrs. Willis Jones. The beautiful Episcopal marriage service was pronounced by the rector at Franklin. The dining room was beautifully and appropriately decorated in pink and white, and a delicious refreshment course was served there.

Miss Moore in Recital.

Columbia friends of Miss Frances Moore, violin-solist, will be interested to know that she assisted in the Symphony Orchestra concert down in her Mississippi home at the auditorium on the night of Dec. 13. Miss Moore is quite talented and her rendition of extremely difficult numbers was highly compliments.

Acuff-Goodloe.

The marriage of Miss Mary Jordan Goodloe and John F. Acuff at Mt. Pleasant Tuesday was a social event of much importance and a marriage of widespread interest in this section. The marriage took place at the Presbyterian church and was most beautiful in all its appointments. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. W. G. Tollett, the pastor of the church, and the decorations were elaborate and tasty. The ushers were Hal Acuff, Ernest Haylan, Cecil Brownlow and Charlie Long, and Mrs. Russell Ray presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march. Mrs. Fred Hunter sang "O Promise Me," and "Because," and Mrs. Gilman sang "Barcarolle." The matron of honor was Mrs. Sidney Frank, of Missouri, and the maid of honor was Miss Ruby Mai Warnock. Hinton Kittrell was the best man. Immediately following the ceremony they left for New Orleans, going by way of Nashville, at which latter place they saw Ben Hur. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ida Goodloe, of Mt. Pleasant, where they will be at home after January 1.

Mrs. Bertram Dedman Hostess.

Saturday afternoon at her home Mrs. Bertram Dedman was the charming hostess of the Cosmopolitan Club when an interesting program was heard. The literary feature was devoted to Irwin Russell and his works.

Miss McBride read an instructive paper on the life of Russell, while Miss Addie Rainey, in her usual gracious manner favored the club with a reading "Xmas Night in the Quarters."

A very enjoyable addition to the program was a violin solo by Miss Zulema Brownlow.

At the close of the program a social hour was spent when a tempting lunch course was served.

ALFORD CASE TO JURY TODAY

INTRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE IS CONCLUDED AND ARGUMENT IS BEGUN.

TRENTON, Tenn., Dec. 13.—The long continued trial of J. A. Alford, under indictment for murder in the first degree for the killing of W. S. Coulter, is nearing the verdict. Today marked the conclusion of the evidence of both the defense and of the state. At 11 o'clock the argument was begun.

The court has allowed six hours to the side for the discussion, after which the charge will be delivered to the jury. It is thought that a verdict will be reached early Friday morning.

STANDARD OIL NEW BUILDINGS

WAREHOUSE AND STABLE CONTRACT AGGREGATING AN EXPENDITURE OF $6,000.

The Standard Oil Co. have let contracts to the amount of $6,000 for the building of a new warehouse and stables at its plant at the Hampshire crossing near the C. M. A. The warehouse will be built of brick, two stories high and will be 30x40 feet. The stable will have stall room for ten head of horses and mules with wagon sheds, hay lofts and grain cribs and their feed rooms. The stable will also be constructed of brick. This contract was let to Simpson and Alford Bros. The work will begin right away and be pushed to completion. This added to the other building that is now in course of construction will make things lively in Columbia for the next ninety days.

CANNON COUNTIAN APPREHENDED UNDER A SERIOUS CHARGE

WARRANT CHARGING BRINGING STOLEN PROPERTY INTO MAURY COUNTY.

SWAPPED HORSE DIDN'T OWN

Allegations That He Stole Mare in Davidson County, and Owner Came Here and Carried the Animal Back Home Tuesday.

Claude Hall, whose home is alleged to be in Cannon county, is in the toils of the law under a very serious charge, with prospects of a prosecution in two counties. Deputy Sheriff Sam Hardison went to Nashville this morning with a warrant for Hall who had been apprehended by Davidson county officers, charging him with bringing stolen property into Maury county.

The alleged facts in the case are that Hall came to Columbia one day recently and brought with him a mare, and this animal was swapped to G. W. Davis, the liveryman here. Tuesday of this week a man named Come from Davidson county came here and identified the animal as his, and alleged that it had been stolen from him it was returned to him without legal procedure. The animal that Davis had swapped to Hall was traded to some one near Spring Hill, so the report goes, and Hall had gone back to his home in Cannon county.

A telephone message to Woodbury failed to locate him, and the Davidson county officers were notified when the warrant was sworn out here.

Sheriff Godwin was notified that Hall had been arrested in Nashville and was being held for the officers here, and Deputy Hardison went for him this morning.

He will be brought here this afternoon, and it is expected that he will be prosecuted for bringing stolen property into the county. This charge being satisfied it is possible that the Davidson county courts will be asked to take cognizance of the case.

GOT RID OF OUTFIT.

Stole Horse at Antioch and Drove Through to Columbia.

Special to The Herald.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 13.—Deputy Sheriff Hardison, of Maury county, came to Nashville this morning to take into custody Claude Hall, arrested here last night on a charge of stealing a horse.

He stole the horse at Antioch and drove it to Columbia and traded it for another outfit and $50 to boot. He got rid of the other outfit before he arrived in Nashville.
